Dear Mr. Lewis:

On behalf of Mr. Dulles, I want to thank you for your letter of 10 April concerning arrangements for the National Business Conference on 9 June.

Mr. Dulles is looking forward to being with you. We shall advise you of his exact travel plans when they have become firm.

In the brochure attached to your letter, you say that Mr. Dulles "will compare" the incentive systems of the Communists and the free world. Actually, he will not. He will speak on the subject which you and I discussed before, "The Communist Incentive System." The other distinguished panelists will, I am sure, deal most adequately with the free world incentive system.

Comparisons can be made by those who attend. Mr. Dulles will stick to the precise area within his competence, which is Communism.

I am sure you will appreciate our desire to adhere to our original subject and trust that your publicity from now until the conference will reflect this.

Best regards.

Sincerely,

O/DCI [ ] kpm
